Art Unit: 3644

1. Claims 1,2,4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zimmerman (2108093) in view of Pender (4097008) . Zimmerman in col 2 lines 44-47 states the depth of the aircraft is smaller for better streamlining (ie reduced drag). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to move the reclining seats of Zimmerman (2108093) in and out the rear as taught by Pender (4097008) since it provides efficient people moving.

2. Claims 3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Zimmerman (2108093) in view of Pender (4097008) as stated in paragraph 4 and further in view of Zimmerman (2411770). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to add an extra door to the top of Zimmerman (2108093) as taught by Zimmerman (2411770) since it provides an emergency escape.

1. Applicant's arguments filed 3/04/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

It is noted that the prior need not claim the same thing that applicant is claiming, the prior only needs to disclose the structure that makes up the claims of applicant or to teach the obviousness of applicants claimed invention. Zimmerman clearly shows a pilot and passengers in a reclined positions and the height of the aircraft is lower than if they were sitting up and Pender clearly teaches a way of quickly moving seated passengers in and out of the tail.

2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
